

DESCRIPTION

The product use a rechargeable Li-Ion battery or External Power as power supply. When External Power is connected (Home or Car), the product use External Power as power source and External Power can charge the Li-Ion battery at the same time. And when External Power is not connected the product use the rechargeable battery as power source . The Power Switch controls the power source to supply for the system.

The product has three leds and three keys.

LEDS: the blue led and the red led indicate all state of Bluetooth work, and the green led indicates External Power is connecting with the product.

KEYS: three keys can be used to answers the incoming call, turn volume up or down and so on.

The product use the 2.4Gwireless (bluetooth) to connect with mobile phone or PC. The head will move side to side and the mouth will open and close coincide with voice from speaker.